ComicCraft Customer Problem Statements:

I am	I'm trying to	But	Because	Which makes me feel
A non-artist, student, storyteller, or hobbyist who has a creative comic idea.	Create a personalized comic with a storyline, character dialogues, and illustrations from my own prompt.	Creating the story, dialogue, artwork, panel arrangement, and final document manually takes considerable time and creative effort.	I may not have professional drawing skills, storytelling experience, or the tools needed to combine text and images into a complete comic.	Frustrated by the difficulty of turning my imagination into a finished comic.
A user who wants to experiment with different moods and visual styles for a comic.	Quickly generate and regenerate a comic by changing the tone, setting, character, or art style.	Changing the story concept and visual style manually requires repeating much of the creative process.	Traditional comic creation requires separate tools and manual coordination between writing, illustration, layout, and export.	Limited in exploring different creative ideas quickly and consistently.
